

What is Young Leaders in Philanthropy?

Young Leaders in Philanthropy is a group of young leaders who are committed to creating real, lasting change for good in Hinds, Madison and Rankin counties. YLPs invest in our community through United Way and believes in its work in building strong, effective partnerships that help it accomplish its mission:

To provide educational and asset building opportunities that create pathways to prosperity for families in our community.

How do I Join?

Membership starts with a household annual contribution to United Way of the Capital Area of $250. Your contribution can be designated through your workplace campaign or directly to UWCA by contacting Monica Daniels, VP Resource Development (monica@myunitedway.com; 601-965-1346).

What are the Benefits of Membership?

- You'll be recognized as a leader with United Way of the Capital Area.
- You'll have opportunities to interact with business leaders and other society members who are committed to improving the lives of families in Hinds, Madison and Rankin counties.
- You'll receive exclusive invitations to our Lunch & Learn events designed to improve your leadership skills, cultivate personal and business relationships, and provide access to volunteer activities.
